WESTERN AG NETWORK

The logo for the Western Ag Network is centered between the words 'AG' and 'NETWORK'. It features a stylized radio tower with a circular antenna at the top. On either side of the tower are stalks of wheat. In front of the tower are silhouettes of farm animals: a cow, a horse, and a sheep. To the right of the animals is a small circular emblem containing the letters 'NAFEB'.

Western Ag Network provides daily Ag radio programs on the Western Ag Network in Billings, Mont; and the Ag Information Network in Walla Walla, Wash. These programs are heard on over 200 radio stations in Alabama, California, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, New Mexico, South Dakota, Oregon, Utah, Washington State and Wyoming. Their television broadcasts are seen statewide on Cowles Montana Media which includes stations in Billings, Butte-Bozeman, Helena, Great Falls and Missoula-Kalispell.

Beyond The Weather

We're In This Together

The "Beyond the Weather" Movement is about getting beyond talking about what is easy with neighbors. By sharing our own vulnerabilities, we can normalize the mental health challenges we face that are unique in agricultural communities.

Spotlight

Three middle school students saw a need for peer-to-peer mental health support, so they created the Stress Less Squad, which currently meets once a week for 1.5 hours. This group is passionate about creating belonging for their age group.

Montana Farmers Union Foundation Community Grant Program funded $1,300 to help keep this program running for the upcoming year.

We are very proud of these young leaders for working hard to support their peers.
