DEERE REPAIR SETTLEMENT

Opting Out of the Deere Repair Settlement

Keep your right to sue Deere. Here is how.

MAIL BY
Dec 4
2026

MONTANA FARMERS UNION
COOPERATION • EDUCATION • LEGISLATION

Are you in the class? Yes, if you paid a Deere dealer to repair a large tractor, combine, or similar machine between Jan 10, 2018 and May 18, 2026. This applies if you received a notice OR NOT.

Opt out - Recommended

- Keep your right to sue Deere
- Not bound by the settlement
- No settlement payment

Stay in and file a claim

- Give up your right to sue Deere
- Paid only if you file by Dec 31, 2026
- You may object by Dec 4, 2026

Opt out in three steps

1 Fill in the letter

Use our sample letter (scan below). It has everything the court requires.

Add your name, operation, and contact details.

2 Sign it

For a farm business, an owner or officer signs and writes their title. If you have more than one entity in your operation submit a letter for each entity.

3 Mail by Dec 4

Deere Repair Services Antitrust Litigation
Attn: Exclusions
P.O. Box 58220
Philadelphia, PA 19102

Send certified mail. Keep a copy.

Avoid these mistakes

- One letter per person or business
- No group or family letters
- Use the exact address above
- Answer any follow-up from the administrator
- Late, unsigned, or incomplete letters do not count

Opt-out FAQ

Sample opt-out letter

Help getting your dealer invoices

Do nothing? You stay in the settlement. You give up your right to sue Deere. You get no money.

This is not legal advice. General information only. For advice on your situation, talk with a lawyer of your choosing.

See official court documents for complete information

Questions? Willie Cade, Graceful Solutions LLC | willie@graceful.solutions | 773-562-3377

Official site: DeereRepairSettlement.com | 1-844-644-4294 | Source: Court Order Doc. 367, Case No. 3:22-cv-50188 (N.D. Ill.)